Trump's HUD Secretary Pick Is A Bull Signal For OZs.

On Friday, President-elect Donald Trump announced that he will nominate Scott Turner as Secretary of Housing and Urban Development.

During Trump's first term, Turner served as director of the White House Opportunity & Revitalization Council, which was created to target, streamline, and coordinate Federal resources to be used in Opportunity Zones. (This council was disbanded in 2021 when Biden took office.)

I view this pick as another strong signal that the new White House intends to fully support Opportunity Zones as a community development tool starting next year.
