Trump Wins The White House

The future is bright for Opportunity Zones, as Donald Trump has secured a second Presidential term... and (as of the writing of this email) a Republican sweep in Congress looks very likely.

It's no secret that this was viewed by myself and many others in the industry as the most favorable election outcome for an extension and renewal of Opportunity Zones.

We'll continue to cover tax legislation news throughout the rest of this year and into 2025. But in the meantime, I hope you'll join us at OZ Pitch Day next week.

Join us on Thursday, November 14th for a day of Opportunity Zone education, election outcome analysis, and access to private OZ deals...
